Brought to you by Liberty Risk Reduce

Liberty Specialty Markets supports their clients by providing free access to Croner-i via the Liberty Risk Reduce Portal. Croner-i provides user-friendly online information, expert guidance, and tools for professionals. These resources help businesses manage sectors, such as health & safety, tax, accounting, audit, human resources, and compliance. Other materials provided by Croner-i include rules and regulations on safety, occupational health, accidents, and hazards in your industry, which help to give you support and guidance. The easy-to-digest guidance shows you how to put these into action, and the legislation tracker keeps you up to date. With the right compliance information, you can implement change effectively.

What are the benefits?

- Croner-i is packed with functionalities that make it simple to find, use, and save the health & safety information you need. It has intuitive navigation, and everything you need located in one place
- There is access to a vast amount of policies. These policies are formatted so they can be made bespoke to your organisation. Not having to start a policy from the beginning will save you time and give you reassurance that key components will be covered in the master policy
- Every single guide, tool, and resource in Croner-i is regularly updated, so you can be positive that the information you're reading is correct and relevant. Plus, regular news and weekly e-alerts keep you in the loop with ever-changing rules and regulations
- Documents can be downloaded so you can access your work easily. Documents are also available in Word for easy formatting and can be emailed directly to colleagues, etc.
- Croner-i provides access to numerous training courses and has all the materials you need to deliver the training. The training modules and resources are adaptable. This means anyone can teach a programme and it's malleable to your organisation, so there's no need to employ an external trainer. The subjects cover accident reporting, electricity, and stress management. These courses give your staff practical instructions and help to build a culture of health & safety
- A subscription to Croner-i also provides access to a helpline for more advice. Experienced advisors are on hand 9am-5pm to help answer more complex queries
